

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

Acts 2:1-41

Family Activity (Before Chapel Kids Elementary Video)

- Gather your family and sit in a circle.
- You will whisper a phrase into one person's ear and that person will whisper it to the person sitting next to them. (Like the game "Telephone.")
- The goal is for each person to continue the whispered phrase around the circle until the very last person attempts to say the phrase out loud.

Possible Tongue Twister phrases (feel free to use your own if you have some favorites):

1. The really rad rhinoceros ran out of raspberries.
2. Big bully Billy better be nice to Beatrice.
3. Sally's out of seashells, so she now sells sandwiches.
4. Purple platypuses pick pink peonies.
5. Hungry, hungry hippos shouldn't hang out by your homework.

Say: You did a pretty amazing job at passing on those super funny sentences, but sometimes they were easy to get twisted, weren't they? What do you think it would feel like if you didn't know what your friend was saying all the time? (Allow time for responses.) Today in our Chapel Kids lesson, we are going to learn about a group of people who couldn't understand what the others were saying. BUT it was for a really cool reason! Let's watch!

Holy Spirit Gives Power - Sign Language

Say: What an amazing story! The disciples had been given a HUGE task—to tell everyone everywhere about Jesus. They could have been so anxious about it that they just gave up. But they didn't! They trusted God, and He gave them what they needed to keep going—the Holy Spirit! When things seem impossible or overwhelming, you can trust God to carry you through. He'll give you just what you need. Let's learn some sign language to help us remember that the Holy Spirit gives us power.
